

BURGLAR ON THE ROOF

Daring Thief Seen Dragging His Plunder After Him.

His Perilous Journey Across Slanting House Tops on the Bowery.

Captured on the Top Floor of a Lodging-House.

About 5 o'clock this morning Police-man Lew Pollock, of Capt. Creedon's squad, was patrolling his post on the Bowery, near Bleeker street, when a man ran around from Elizabeth street and told him there was a crazy man climbing over the roofs of the houses on the west side of the Bowery, between Houston and Bleeker.

Pollock crossed over to the other side of the Bowery, from where he could see the supposed crazy man slowly making his way along the roofs. Pollock also noticed that the fellow was dragging a big bundle after him, and he at once concluded that he was a burglar and not a lunatic.

Pollock ran up in the lodging-house at 30 Bowery to intercept the fellow on the roof. When he reached the top floor the fellow had just dropped through the scuttle and gone into a room. Pollock pushed the door in and arrested the man.

He at first protested that he had been asleep, but finally gave in when he saw it was no use, and admitted that he had robbed a clothing store in the block.

The bundle which he had dragged along in his hands over the roofs was found to contain thirteen coats, fourteen vests and eight pairs of trousers.

Pollock took the prisoner to the Mulberry street station, where he described himself as Otto Belersdorf, nineteen years old. He said he had no home, but was staying in the Bowery lodging-house.

After he was locked up the police made an investigation and found that Herman Meyer's clothing store and the cigar factory of Sherman Jacoby, at No. 315 and 317 Bowery, had been burglarized. The stolen goods were found in the two top floors of the building, which is a four-story building.

The police learned that the burglary had been committed about 2 o'clock last night. The prisoner hired a room in the lodging-house at 30 Bowery, and he had been coming into the top floor and got it. It is supposed that his confederate went there later.

They climbed over the roof of the lodging-house and crossed over to the roof of No. 304. The lodging-house is a four-story building, but the roof is not flat, but is slanted.

The burglars jumped the distance. The house at No. 304 and 310 are two-story and attic structures, with slanting roofs, which are about twenty feet apart.

The burglars, however, climbed down all chimneys, and so got on to the roof of No. 304. They then crawled slowly along the edge of the slanting roof of the cigar factory and got down to the roof of the clothing store.

On the roof of the clothing store, they saw the other burglar, and they both hid inside. It is said that they were there for some time, and that they were waiting for the other burglar to come.

They must have spent several hours in the place, as they left evidence that behind. Mr. Jacoby's office is on the second floor, and the other burglar came in from the street, and he saw the first burglar, and he saw the first burglar, and he saw the first burglar.

The windows of Mr. Jacoby's office look right out on the elevated road, and the people in the office saw the burglars. The burglars saw the people in the office, and they saw the people in the office, and they saw the people in the office.

When the burglars next proceeded to effect an entrance into the clothing store by sawing a hole in the flooring over a doorway, they were discovered by the police. The burglars saw the police, and they saw the police, and they saw the police.

Pollock brought the burglar to Headquarters this morning, and arranged for his arrest. The burglar was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station.

Pollock brought the burglar to Headquarters this morning, and arranged for his arrest. The burglar was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station.

Pollock brought the burglar to Headquarters this morning, and arranged for his arrest. The burglar was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station.

Pollock brought the burglar to Headquarters this morning, and arranged for his arrest. The burglar was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station.

Pollock brought the burglar to Headquarters this morning, and arranged for his arrest. The burglar was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station, and he was taken to the Bowery station.

HELD FOR THE FATAL BLAST.

Inveilli and His Batterymen Charged with Manslaughter.

Accused of Responsibility for Saturday's Disaster.

Arrested by a Policeman and a Newspaper Man.

Peter Inveilli, the contractor in charge of the blasting of rock at the corner of One Hundred and Twenty-second street and Fourth avenue, where the disaster occurred Saturday afternoon, was arraigned in the Harlem Police Court this morning with his batterymen, P. Angelo and George Molo.

These men, it is alleged, are directly responsible for the death of Mrs. Marie Posey and her five-year-old daughter, Marie Adele Posey, of 83 East One Hundred and Twenty-second street, and for the injuries inflicted on six other persons living in the vicinity of the blasting.

The story of the overcharge blast, which sent huge pieces of rock on death dealing missions into the kitchen of the Poseys, was told in Saturday's Sporting Extra of "The Evening World."

A big piece of rock, weighing at least 1,500 pounds, crashed through the wall and struck Mrs. Posey dead as she was leaning over the kitchen sink, and her little daughter and forced her through the wall of the kitchen of Mrs. Alfred Barnes, who occupied the west wing of the house.

The police made prisoners of the batterymen and the contractor, and this morning charged them with manslaughter in the second degree.

Contractor Inveilli told Justice Feltner that he was in no way responsible, as he was not on the spot at the time of the explosion. Had he been there, he would have seen that the blast was properly protected.

The police asserted that they had abundant evidence to prove that the contractor was personally in charge at the time of the explosion. Justice Feltner then held all three men without bail for trial.

The funeral services for the bodies of Mrs. Posey and her little girl, Marie Adele, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. They will be buried in Washington, D. C.

Miss Mamie McAdam and Reginald Posey, whose skulls were fractured, are lying in a critical condition in the Harlem Hospital.

INDIAN INTRUDERS WILL FIGHT.

Government Will Require Troops to Eject Them from the Territory.

PORT GIBSON, I. T., July 24.—News has been received here over the attempt of the United States to remove the so-called intruders under a commission recently appointed by the President. Judge Piermont says the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

They say they will fight before they will allow the Government to sell their homes and drive them out of the country. They have been coming into the nation and fencing up the Indian land when they have no right to do so. It is said that the Government will require troops to eject the intruders, who number about 2,000, and compose the most thrifty population in the nation.

CAUGHT A BURGLAR IN THE ACT

John Williams Held for Trying to Enter a Shoe Store.

Arrested by a Policeman and a Newspaper Man.

Valuable Packages Taken from the United States Express Co.

In the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning John Williams, a colored man, aged twenty-one, was held for burglary. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

Williams was held for trying to enter a shoe store. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

Williams was held for trying to enter a shoe store. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

Williams was held for trying to enter a shoe store. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

Williams was held for trying to enter a shoe store. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

Williams was held for trying to enter a shoe store. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

Williams was held for trying to enter a shoe store. He was captured early this morning by Policeman George Reid, of the Nineteenth Precinct, with the assistance of James Murray, a well-known newspaper man, in the act of breaking into Robert J. Cridwell's shoe store, at 115 West Thirtieth street.

Reid saw two suspicious-looking colored men going through Thirtieth street, and followed them until they reached the shoe store. Williams, who did not hear the rattle of a broken lock, when he sprang from his place of concealment and caught a young colored man named Williams, hanging from the transom and endeavoring to climb through it into the store.

Reid grabbed the man, and with the assistance of Murray, who came running up at that moment, overpowered him and took him to the station-house. The other man got away.

EXPRESS THIEVES CAUGHT.

Bernstein and Spairo Had Stolen Systematically for Weeks.

Valuable Packages Taken from the United States Express Co.

The Jurist Tells of His Two Applications for a Retiring.

Samuel Bernstein, eighteen years old, of 12 Madison street, and Harry Spairo, nineteen, of 12 Allen street, were held for the Grand Jury in the Tombs Court today charged with stealing from the United States Express Company.

For some time valuable packages have disappeared from the office of the United States Express Company in Canal street, or were lost in transit between that place and Jersey City. Assistant Transportation Agent George Payne kept a close watch, and finally reported the matter to Inspector McLaughlin, who placed Detectives Doyle and Dolan on the case.

They immediately suspected Bernstein, who was employed as a helper on one of the Company's delivery wagons. The officers were satisfied that Bernstein had an accomplice, and finally located Spairo.

Fredrick Dolan and Doyle shadowed Spairo on his way down to the Liberty street ferryboat. Among the packages taken from the Express Company were a box of tools, a box of clothing, and a box of food.

It was addressed to Jacob Bunting & Co., of Philadelphia, and contained a box of tools, a box of clothing, and a box of food. The packages were taken from the Express Company, and they were taken from the Express Company.

Another case of small-pox. Guericke Olde, the Sixth Victim, Taken from 25 Bell Street.

Another and the sixth case of small-pox has been discovered in the pest-infested tenement at 25 Bell street. The first case to light last Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Doty, the Chief of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, and three inspectors devoted the greater portion of yesterday to examining its tenants, and Guericke Olde, twenty-three years old, a boarder, was discovered with small-pox. He was taken to North Brother Island.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

JUDGE LONG ON HIS PENSION

Corporal Tanner Says the Veteran Needs a Private Attendant.

The Jurist Tells of His Two Applications for a Retiring.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Regarding the pension granted to Judge Long, of the Michigan Supreme Court, which has been reduced by order of Pension Commissioner Lochren, Corpl. Tanner, under whose administration the increase of pension was made, said yesterday:

"Judge Long is disabled by a gunshot wound in the left hip, and his left arm was amputated above the elbow. The wound, which has never healed, and which reaches through from the left to the right hip, where the bullet still lodges, requires to be dressed at least twice a day. Judge Long cannot attend to this himself, having but one hand, he must be regularly attended by a nurse for that purpose. If you take away that attendant and let that old wound alone for one week and lives in a little house on the left bank of the Detroit River, it is a place that cannot be allowed to heal without producing blood poisoning."

Tanner officers were satisfied that Bernstein had an accomplice, and finally located Spairo. Fredrick Dolan and Doyle shadowed Spairo on his way down to the Liberty street ferryboat. Among the packages taken from the Express Company were a box of tools, a box of clothing, and a box of food.

It was addressed to Jacob Bunting & Co., of Philadelphia, and contained a box of tools, a box of clothing, and a box of food. The packages were taken from the Express Company, and they were taken from the Express Company.

Another case of small-pox. Guericke Olde, the Sixth Victim, Taken from 25 Bell Street.

Another and the sixth case of small-pox has been discovered in the pest-infested tenement at 25 Bell street. The first case to light last Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Doty, the Chief of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, and three inspectors devoted the greater portion of yesterday to examining its tenants, and Guericke Olde, twenty-three years old, a boarder, was discovered with small-pox. He was taken to North Brother Island.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

NEW JERSEY NEWS

LOADED FOR "REGULATORS." SUNDAY TRAINS AFTER AUG. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Cregier Will Resist Any Invasion of Their House.

Bloomfield Residents Object to Her Negro Servant.

If Carpenter John Cregier, of Bloomfield, N. J., continues in the same state of mind as an "Evening World" reporter found him this morning, it will be a long day for "Regulators" or "White Caps" should they attempt to carry out the threats against his pretty wife, Gertrude, in a notice tacked upon a tree in front of their residence yesterday.

Mr. Cregier is employed by W. L. Gilbert, 12 Chambers street, this city, and lives in a little house on the left bank of the Detroit River, it is a place that cannot be allowed to heal without producing blood poisoning."

Tanner officers were satisfied that Bernstein had an accomplice, and finally located Spairo. Fredrick Dolan and Doyle shadowed Spairo on his way down to the Liberty street ferryboat. Among the packages taken from the Express Company were a box of tools, a box of clothing, and a box of food.

It was addressed to Jacob Bunting & Co., of Philadelphia, and contained a box of tools, a box of clothing, and a box of food. The packages were taken from the Express Company, and they were taken from the Express Company.

Another case of small-pox. Guericke Olde, the Sixth Victim, Taken from 25 Bell Street.

Another and the sixth case of small-pox has been discovered in the pest-infested tenement at 25 Bell street. The first case to light last Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Doty, the Chief of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, and three inspectors devoted the greater portion of yesterday to examining its tenants, and Guericke Olde, twenty-three years old, a boarder, was discovered with small-pox. He was taken to North Brother Island.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

QUEENSTOWN, July 24.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. McKay, from Boston July 15 for Liverpool, arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning. She reports that at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening she passed the Campania, of the Cunard line, which sailed here for New York at 1:00 o'clock yesterday morning.

Dr. Doty thinks there is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, as inspectors have gone through the neighborhood, and no one has been exposed. The only cause for apprehension is that Olde was not suffering from a very severe attack of the disease, and moved freely about the thickly crowded neighborhood for several days.

THE CAMPANIA IS SPEEDING. Predicted at Queenstown that She Will Lower the Record.

REPORTED CHANGE ON THE MORRIS AND ESSEX BRANCH OF THE D. L. & W.

Orange Residents Will Not Then Be Cut Off One Day in the Week.